

We can define our Human Resources Policy, as to pick the right staff for the fitting position to merge into HGGC Management. Aiming for a long-term collaboration with our employees, we offer the necessary management and technical training in different departments, evaluate their performances by our performance management system, and pick the higher potential and career planning together for their future.

We are aware that the basic criteria to maintain and keep the manpower in our company is to follow a transparent and equitable management policy of development for our employees and provide their commitment to the company at the forefront.

Our Aim is to find:

Right Person for the right job!
